Lattimore Testifies Sen. McCarthy Is Liar

Officers Kill Top Criminal In California

LOS ANGELES—(P)—Fred Walter Lennon, 39, one of the nation's worst criminals is dead, beaten to the draw by a rookie officer and an FBI agent.

And today, police and federal men throughout southern California are trying to track down his "most-wanted" partner, believed traveling in a house trailer with his wife, listed as "a dangerous gun moll."

Lennon was cut down yesterday by FBI Agent Jerome J. Doutt and State Highway Patrolman Sam H. McDaniel after a 70-mile-an-hour chase on a desert road near Mojave, Calif.

Trio Splits Up

He was spotted by Doutt near Lancaster after the trio had been reported seen in that area, towing a house trailer. The car pulling the trailer was reported to contain Lennon, Lee Emory Downs, 44, listed by the FBI as one of the 10 most-wanted criminals, and Downs' wife, Patricia. Lennon apparently drove on alone to draw pursuers from Downs and his wife.

Doutt set out in pursuit. At Mojave he stopped and enlisted the aid of McDaniel. They overtook Lennon's car about 10 miles west of Mojave after a 70-mile-an-hour chase.

"We finally got close enough and I blew the siren," said McDaniel. "He pulled over and Doutt got out, went over to his car and said: 'are you Downs?'

Fumbles With Gun

The fellow knew this was no ordinary pinch so he reached inside his shirt and pulled out a German-made pistol. While he was trying to snap the safety, Doutt yelled, "he's going to shoot" so Doutt and I both opened and fired 12 rounds. Seven bullets hit him."

The FBI said Lennon was "badly wanted" because of his association with Downs. The two men have worked together for years as burglars and robbers, the FBI said.

Downs was placed on the "top 10" list in 1948 after the $10,000 robbery of a San Jose, Calif., telephone office. He was described as "a safe-cracker, one of the elite among those who follow the burglary trade."

Chrysler Gets New CIO Offer

DETROIT—(P)—Chrysler Corp. strikebound for 72 days, scanned a union peace offer to-day.

Whether the proposal would break the long deadlock over financing $100-a-month pensions remained to be seen.

However, the CIO United Auto Workers had abandoned their demand that a specific number of cents an hour be set aside in a pension trust fund.

In the dispute idling 140,000 workers this was considered significant. Chrysler has resisted a settlement on a cents-an-hour basis.

Once the negotiators agree on a pension plan, other problems remain to be solved. But agreements of them are expected to come more quickly.

The biggest non-economic hurdle is the question of a union shop. The union wants a commitment from the company agreeing in principle to a union shop.

Senate Passes Bill Opening US Door To European Refugees

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON—(P)—Legislation to let additional thousands of European refugees come to this country to make their homes passed the Senate just before last midnight.

The bill, liberalizing the 1948 displaced persons law by raising the number that can be admitted to 359,000 caps a long and bitter struggle in the Senate. Republicans and Democrats in almost equal numbers joined to put it over, by a final vote of 58 to 15.

The Senate bill eliminates provisions of the 1948 act which President Truman assailed in his election campaign as discriminatory against Catholics and Jews.

Politician Shot In Kansas City

By AL DOPKING

KANSAS CITY—(P)—Charles Binaggio, onetime underling to the late boss Tom Pendergast, who went on to become Kansas City's northside political chief himself, and Binaggio's right hand man were shot to death early today in their Democratic club room.

Binaggio was found slumped in a chair at a desk near the rear of the club room on Truman road, named for the president. The body of ex-convict Charles Gargotta was sprawled on the floor near the door.

One of Binaggio's shoulders was sprinkled with cigarette ashes. There was a pool of blood on the floor at his feet and directly over his bullet-pierced head hung a picture of President Truman.

Gargotta laid in a thick pool of blood. He had been brought down with a bullet in the head. He had clutched desperately at a venetian blind as he fell. He obviously had been running for his life.

Binaggio had risen rapidly to political power on the northside in the last few years. He had challenged the leadership of the Pendergast organization where he got his start as a precinct worker. And political prestige grew when he swung his support in 1948 behind Forrest Smith for governor.

Cutter Helps Five
Vessels At Straits
Into Lake Michigan

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich.—(P)—The coast guard reported yesterday that the ice breaker Mackinaw escorted five boats through the frozen Straits of Mackinac last night, westbound into Lake Michigan.

Two of the vessels were reported owned by the Bradley Transportation of Alpena. Their destination was not given.

Meanwhile Boatswain H. E. Ask, commander of the ice - breaking tug Kaw, based here, reported that the tug made a six-mile inspection run down the St. Marys river Wednesday and found heavy ice, ranging to 20 inches in depth at Six-Mile Point range light.

The coast guard reported the Sault harbor at the foot of the Sault locks is mostly open water.

Best estimates are that the first interlake passages through the locks will be made some time next week. Last year the navigation season opened March 26 and 341 carriers had cleared the locks by April 4.

Diplomat Says He's Not No. 1 Red Spy In US

Wisconsin Lawmaker Denounced As Fake

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON—(P)—Owen Lattimore, accused by Senator McCarthy of being Russia's top spy in the United States, swore today that the charges are "base and contemptible lies."

He said McCarthy has "flagrantly violated" his responsibility as a Senator and has made unauthorized use of secret government documents.

Made Laughing Stock

Lattimore, an authority on Far Eastern affairs, took note of McCarthy's contention that he can prove Lattimore is or was a Communist and declared:

"I was not and have not been a Communist X X X; and I am not a Communist now."

Lattimore made his denial in testimony prepared for a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee investigating McCarthy's charges that Communists and Red sympathizers have infested the state department.

Hitting back hard in a 10,000-word statement, Lattimore said McCarthy has violated his responsibility "by making the government of the United States an object of suspicion in the eyes of the anti-Communist world and undoubtedly the laughing stock of the Communist governments."

Lattimore also declared that McCarthy has impaired the effectiveness of this government "in its relations with its friends and allies."

Publicity Damaging

He accused the Wisconsin Senator of "instituting a reign of terror among officials and employees in the United States government, none of whom can be sure of safety from attack by the machine gun of irresponsible publicity in Joseph McCarthy's hands."

Lattimore is director of a school of international relations at Johns Hopkins University. He flew back to this country from a United Nations mission in Afghanistan after McCarthy made his accusations.

Lattimore told the inquiry committee that McCarthy has:

1. "Without authorization used secret documents obtained from official government files."

2. "Villified citizens of the United States and accused them of high crime, without giving them an opportunity to defend themselves."

3. "Refused to submit alleged documentary evidence to a duly

Ecorse Ex-Mayor Sent To Prison In Perjury Case

WASHINGTON—(P)—Former Mayor William W. Voisine of Ecorse, Mich., today was sentenced to eight months to two years in the federal prison in Milan, Mich., for perjury before a congressional committee.

He was convicted Monday by a jury on a charge he falsely told a House investigating subcommittee in 1948 law giving conservation officers power to make searches without warrants and ruled that conservation officers were not peace officers.

Tuesday's conference will seek possibilities for repairing some of the wreckage with legislative action at this session.

The full conservation commission will be called in a day early for their monthly meeting to attend. Also present will be top officials of the conservation department, legislative conservation committee chairmen, representatives of the state police and the attorney general's office.

At a preliminary conference yesterday, conservation director P. J. Hoffmaster told the governor that all conservation officers had been ordered to stop carrying their revolvers and blackjacks as a precautionary measure.

Two of the vessels were reported owned by the Bradley Transportation of Alpena. Their destination was not given.

Meanwhile Boatswain H. E. Ask, commander of the ice - breaking tug Kaw, based here, reported that the tug made a six-mile inspection run down the St. Marys river Wednesday and found heavy ice, ranging to 20 inches in depth at Six-Mile Point range light.

Governor Lambasted In Drive To Take Michigan Out Of Mud

LANSING—(P)—Over bitter opposition of Democrats, the House today approved a resolution 51-26 demanding that Governor Williams let the legislature consider increased gasoline and auto license taxes.

Calling for the move "to take Michigan out of the mud" Republicans jammed the resolution through the Senate yesterday 19-7 under a gag which prevented Democratic senators from voicing their opposition.

Washington Blamed

In both Houses the vote was along strict party lines.

In the House Rep. Martha Griffiths (D-Detroit) warned the Republicans "we will tell the people exactly what you are doing—we will make the issue very clear in your home districts.

Labor Circles Talk Of AFL-CIO Merger

By HAROLD W. WARD

WASHINGTON—(P)—A possible merger of the AFL and CIO has suddenly become a serious topic of conversation in labor circles.

The reason: AFL President William Green's observation that the groups could work toward unification into a single organization of some 16,000,000 members.

The AFL claims 8,000,000 on its rolls, the CIO 6,000,000, and the other organizations about 2,000,000 together.

Green and Murray have split in the past over how unification should be accomplished, and their differences still seemed to exist.

The AFL chief favors immediate consolidation—as contrasted with the step-by-step procedure suggested by Murray. Green made clear in an interview in New Orleans that he hasn't changed his mind.

"The interests of labor could best be served by the establishment of one strong, united organization," he said. "Anything less would be temporary."

But the 76-year-old labor leader said he will be ready to meet with Murray upon his return to Washington. Green was in Louisiana to attend a meeting of the state federation of labor.

Jealous Youth Chokes His Girl

OAKLAND, Calif.—(P)—Arthur Prindle, 19, shaking off the effects of 12 sleeping pills, mumbled a dramatic bedside confession to his policeman-father last night: He strangled his pretty 18 year old sweetheart in a jealous rage.

It was learned today that the Dulles appointment was worked out by Acheson and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) after Mr. Truman had authorized Acheson about 10 days ago to take such action as an effort to restore real bi-partisanship in foreign affairs.

The president, Acheson and Vandenberg finally agreed

Bell Expands Phone Service

Cornell Project To Start This Year

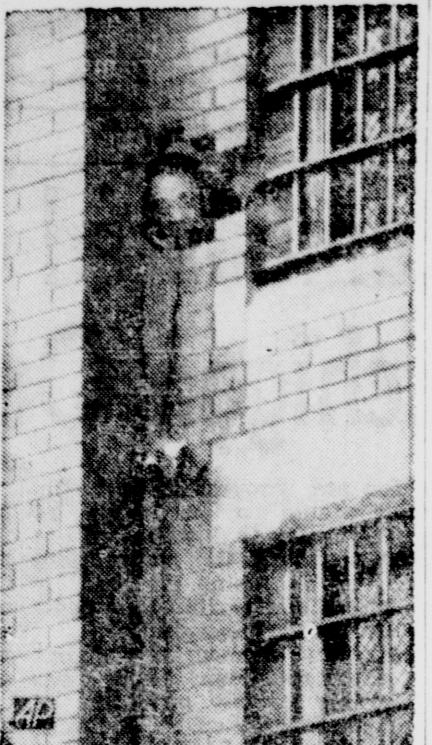

When Michigan Bell Telephone company completes rural phone expansion projects at Rock, Perkins and Cornell a total of about 475 new customers will be given service on an estimated 125 miles of additional line.

The expansion program in the Rock-Perkins area is scheduled for completion Aug. 1 when the lines will be cut into the new exchange there, according to George Marcoulier, Bell company's Escanaba manager.

Extended rural service is rapidly being developed in the Rock-Perkins area, where approximately 90 additional miles of line is being erected. When the work is completed Aug. 1 there will be 225 additional customers in the Rock area, and 150 more at Perkins will be given phone service.

Michigan Bell will start this summer in extending rural telephone service to residents of the Cornell area, but the work will not be completed until next year.

Approximately 100 customers in that area will be given service and an estimated 35 miles of additional line will be erected.

Plans Completed For Conference

U. P. Students Meet Here On April 15

Plans have been completed for the second annual Upper Peninsula High School conference on citizenship, to be held here April 15, it was announced today from the University of Michigan Extension office here.

Approximately 300 representatives of student bodies or members of student councils in Upper Michigan High schools are expected to participate. The conference is sponsored by the University of Michigan Extension service, the University of Michigan Bureau of school services, and the student councils and faculties of Escanaba Senior and Junior high schools, St. Joseph school here, Gladstone high school, Rapid River high school and the Bark River-Harris high school.

Fred Miller, consultant for the U of M Bureau of school services, will be the principal conference speaker. Dr. Lawrence E. Vreden, director of the U of M Bureau of school services also will participate in the program.

Students from nearly every high school in Upper Michigan will be here for the conference, designed to improve student councils in U. P. schools. The role of the student council, extra-curricular activities, school spirit and behavior at school functions and raising of large sums of money are among topics which will be discussed.

Following the conference, University of Michigan gymnasts will give performances on a trampoline, under direction of Newton C. Loken. Social dancing in the junior high school gymnasium will follow.

Schedule Five Boats Monday

Ore Trains Arrive At C&NW Docks

This iron ore shipping port, first to open each year on the Great Lakes, is scheduled to see the arrival of five ore carriers on Monday, April 10, according to information received today by Lee McMillan, C&NW dock agent.

The first arrival, previously scheduled for Saturday, has been held back until Monday. Although there has been no announcement, it is assumed that Coast Guard icebreakers will open a channel to Escanaba through Green bay ice during the weekend.

Last year the first ore carrier arrived here March 23.

Ore Trains Moving

Scheduled to arrive Monday are the following boats:

Strs. Harvester and International of the International Harvester line, coming from winter berths at Manitowoc; and the Strs. Joseph Morrow, C. A. Reiss and D. M. Weir.

Expected to arrive Tuesday are the Strs. Sullivan Brothers and Laketon.

The first trainload of ore, 64 cars, arrived last night from the Menominee range for the Chicago & North Western docks. A trainload of ore from the Marquette range will arrive here this afternoon.

Open Later This Year

Dock crews have been called back to work and the work of dumping the ore into the dock pockets will begin tomorrow morning, McMillan reported. About 50 men will be employed on the two docks, No. 5 and No. 6, for the season.

The navigation opening this year will be the latest in many years. The opening in 1949 and 1948 was March 23, in 1947 it was March 26, and April 9 in 1946.

Last year 3,816,109 tons of ore were shipped from Escanaba.

Canvassers List Official Returns

3,832 Votes Cast In Election Here

A total of 3,832 votes were cast in the biennial election held here Monday, according to official returns prepared this morning by the city board of canvassers.

Total votes received by the six council candidates were as follows:

Jacob Bink 1,476
Guy W. Knutson 1,566
Peter N. Logan 1,834
Albin S. Pearson sr. 1,123
Donald E. Pelletier 73
Thomas X. Quinn 1,108

Caroline Nystrom, only candidate for justice of the peace, to fill an existing vacancy, received 2,175 votes, according to the official tallies. Gayhart Carlson received 10 votes for the office of constable.

On the water plant issue 3,197 voted in favor of construction of a new plant and 469 were opposed to the proposal. The official returns also indicate that 229 voted for increases of property taxes to finance the filter plant and 2,980 voted to finance the plant with revenue earned from the water utility.

The official election returns were about the same as the unofficial returns previously published.

Denis McGinn, city attorney, George Harvey, city clerk, and Belle Harvey, city treasurer, served on the board of canvassers.

The reorganization meeting of the new council, on which Guy W. Knutson and Peter N. Logan will serve, will be held Monday night.

John Root Starts Law Practice In Escanaba

John H. Root, attorney at law, formerly of Crown Point, Ind., has become associated with his brother-in-law, Robert E. LeMire, in the general practice of law, with offices in the Escanaba National Bank building.

Root, who has been practicing law in Indiana, has been admitted to practice law in Michigan. He served as city attorney for Crown Point and was deputy prosecuting attorney for Lake County, the largest county in Indiana.

'Old' Council Meets Tonight

Is Asked To Oppose Proposed Bills

The Escanaba city council will hold a regular meeting at 8:00 o'clock tonight in the council chambers. The meeting is the last session of the present council.

New business on the agenda includes a request from the Escanaba Teamster's Union for a club liquor license, appointment of a council member to the city recreation board and passing of a resolution objecting to proposed legislation which would deprive cities of liquor tax and intangibles tax money.

The council also is to consider a request from the C & S Construction company for extension of a contract covering removal of piling and stone from the wartime government ore dock project. The C & S Construction company was to complete the work before the bay froze last year, but was unable to. A. V. Aronson, city manager stated this morning. The city manager indicated the work would be completed by July 1.

Would Lose $42,000
City Manager Aronson is recommending that the council go on record as opposed to two bills to be introduced in the legislature, which would take liquor and intangibles tax money from cities. The City of Escanaba would lose about $42,000 yearly if these bills were passed, the city manager has explained. Information on the proposed bills was presented at the recent conference of Michigan city managers in Muskegon.

If the proposed bills were passed, Escanaba would be forced to curtail some of its services, or raise assessed values to meet the decrease in revenue, Aronson said this morning. The city tax rate could not be increased because the rate is now at the maximum permitted.

Escanaba last year received about $29,000 through intangible tax revenue and about $13,000 from liquor taxes. An effort to introduce the bills also was made at the last regular legislative session, but failed, the city manager stated today.

I learned from experience...

Maxwell House is true economy!

says Mrs. Gerald D. Waters,
TAHOE CITY, CALIFORNIA

1 "Our Lake Tahoe country is a sportsman's paradise. My husband is an ardent fisherman, and President of our Ski Club. After sports, good hot coffee is the first thing he asks for, but I've found it has to be good. When coffee prices rose I tried cheaper brands, but Gerry said they tasted weak. So I started using more and more coffee per cup!"

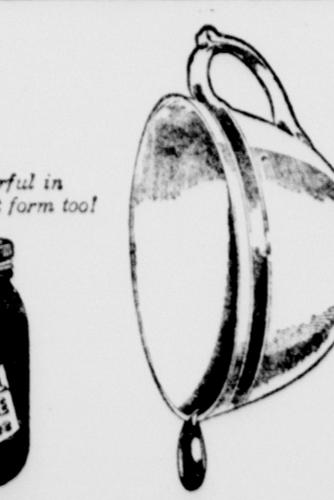

2 "That didn't work, because no matter how much of the cheaper coffee I used, Gerry still didn't like them. Neither did I. They just didn't have the fine flavor we like. Or the clear richness. They didn't even taste good on a fishing trip, when most things taste extra good! I found we were leaving coffee in the pot, and wasting it."

3 "So I learned it was true economy to switch back to our favorite coffee—Maxwell House. There's nothing so satisfying as that 'Good to the Last Drop' flavor—and Maxwell House is so rich we get more truly good cups of coffee from every pound. Besides, we never have leftover wasted coffee when I serve Maxwell House. We've decided bargain coffees aren't bargains by comparison. We've found with Maxwell House we get our money's worth. It certainly is 'Good to the Last Drop'!"

It's true economy to buy the one coffee with that "GOOD TO THE LAST DROP" flavor!

Foreign Policy Impasse Exists

Dulles Is Key To Nonpartisanship

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—The proposal for a nonpolitical commission to investigate charges of Communism in the state department has the merit of common sense and ordinary decency. In the speech in which he made this suggestion Massachusetts' Senator Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. aligned himself with the Republicans who have made clear their deep concern over the McCarthy technique of wild and indiscriminate accusations.

It could mean another step back on the road toward restoration of a nonpartisan foreign policy. And, incidentally, Republican senators seem to be contributing far more toward this end than the Democrats.

Strange Impasse Exists
A strange kind of political impasse exists in this connection. Or, so it is represented by friends of John Foster Dulles who was until the campaign of last fall considered the chief Republican agent of the bipartisan policy just as Senator Arthur Vandenberg has been until his illness the chief congressional moderator of that policy.

Now Dulles' friends are saying that there can be no true bipartisanship until Dulles is restored.

They say this is the viewpoint also of Vandenberg as communicated to Dulles when he was in Washington last week for conferences at the state department.

If this is indeed the case, then the possibility of getting back to a nonpolitical approach to the conduct of foreign policy is not very hopeful. It would seem to be an example in the political sphere of the irresistible force meeting of the immovable object.

American Labor Would Profit By Deportation Of Harry Bridges

THE conviction of Harry Bridges, militant president of west coast longshoremen, on perjury and conspiracy charges opens the way for deportation of the labor leader. Bridges is a native of Australia but there is some question whether Australia will accept him, if he is ordered deported.

Whether Harry Bridges is now a Communist member or Communist sympathizer was not an issue in the perjury trial. The issue was whether he lied at his naturalization hearing in 1945 when he testified that he had never been a member of the Communist party. The jury verdict accepted the government evidence that Bridges had lied and that he had been, in fact, a Communist party member. Conviction on the perjury charge automatically revokes his citizenship. Also, he faces a possible prison term of seven years, plus maximum fine of $15,000. A deportation order, however, cannot be obtained against him until a formal hearing is held before a trial examiner of the U. S. immigration and naturalization hearing.

Bridges has successfully foiled previous efforts to prevent his deportation, and perhaps he will succeed again but his chances are not too bright this time.

The longshoremen union president's public utterances certainly have followed the Communist party line. In 1934, for instance, he said, "I believe in a lot of their (Communist) methods. They know how to win strikes. There's a lot of good in them. After all, they're only after the betterment of social conditions."

In 1936, he said, "We take the stand that we as workers have nothing in common with employers. We are in a class struggle and we subscribe to the belief that if the employer is not in business his products still will be necessary and we will be providing them when there is no employing class. We believe that day is coming." That is the Communist doctrine, unadulterated.

The United States will certainly be better off if Harry Bridges is sent back to his homeland. The American labor movement will be better off, too. Responsible labor leadership in this country must concede that Communism is a foe, not a friend, of free labor, Harry Bridges and his ilk notwithstanding.

Two More U. P. Cities Adopt New Charter

TWO more Upper Peninsula cities approved a change to city manager government in elections this week, Marquette and Negaunee.

Marquette has been utilizing a manager system for several years but without a charter that provides the manager with the authority required to do the administrative job efficiently. Marquette voters called for a revision of their charter by the decisive margin of seven to one.

Negaunee, long a hotbed of local politics, also has decided to change to the city manager system as a means of establishing efficient city government.

The trend to city manager government has been increasing throughout the country, particularly among cities of less than 100,000 population. Escanaba has had such a governmental system since 1922 and a majority of local residents will agree that it has worked out well, providing a degree of efficiency that was unattainable in Escanaba under the old aldermanic government.

Actually a whole year is lost in the shuffle because the city is now preparing its budget for the next fiscal year, 1950-51, at the same time that the report is issued on the happenings of city government in the fiscal year 1948-49.

The reason for this delay is that the controller's office, understaffed as it was, could not keep pace in its bookkeeping and auditing chores and fell months behind.

This situation has since been corrected and it is presumed that the department will catch up on its work, perhaps before the present fiscal year expires.

The fact that financial reports from the controller's office were lagging months behind also increased the difficulty in keeping some of the city departments operating within budgetary limitations. Frequently by the time the department heads learned that expenditures were running ahead of budgetary allowances, months had elapsed and it was too late to regulate the situation completely.

Nevertheless, even conceding that the annual report is months late, we recommend a close study of the report to the citizens of Escanaba. It reveals comprehensive information about city affairs.

AUTHORITY ON GRID MANIA

Overemphasis on collegiate football victories and gridiron stardom was kicked in the shins again here the other day by no less than Elmer Layden, whose name is almost synonymous with big time football.

"Football has come to take too much time in some schools," he said. "It has become too much hard work."

He criticized extreme pressure by alumni and others for winning teams; also the ballyhoo over "all-American" and "all-conference" selections.

There should be no better authority on the subject than Mr. Layden, one of Notre Dame's famous four horsemen, former Notre Dame football coach and former commissioner of professional football for the National Football League.

Surely Elmer Layden loves the game of football and knows what he is talking about when he says that it is overemphasized in the college scheme of things.

Questions and Answers

Q—When was the International Date Line established?

A—In 1884, the International Medidian Conference held at Washington, D. C., established the meridian passing through Greenwich, England, as the prime meridian from which time was to be counted.

The 180th medidian, because it is midway around the earth, became the logical selection for a Date Line. The line deviates somewhat to include islands of the same group in the time zone having the same date.

Q—Where does asbestos come from?

A—The largest asbestos deposits in the world are found in Quebec, Canada, 85 per cent of the world's supply coming from the district of which Thetford Mines is the center.

It has been contended from time to time, by Democratic leaders that the Republican party is the party of big business interests and the Democratic party is the party of the common man. It is interesting to note, however, that this bill, which will benefit only the big natural gas producers, was not only introduced by a Democrat but it was supported primarily by Democrats. Twenty-two Republican senators voted against the bill and only 16 Democrats.

Vote Gettin'

By Gordon Martin

MARTIN

When the politicians gather to decide on who will run, it's a sight that never fails to offer lots of lookin' fun. Just to watch their operations is a show that's hard to beat, as "the boys" report what's cookin' out in every county seat. From the feelin's of the people to the current price of oats, they're discussin' many topics when it's time to get the votes.

There's the county boss who wouldn't trade his standin' with a king, as he thumbs his big cigar and says the votin' he can swing. There's the city precinct captain whom you never overhear, for he's always 'round a-whisperin' in everybody's ear. And of course, the lady leader, minglin' in the mob of men, bustles here and there as busy as a cluckin' mother hen.

Then along comes Mr. Big and quick the millin' throng surrounds, and because he looks a winner, hero worship knows no bounds. He's a pointin' out with pride that he's a product of the farm, and he also takes some time to do some winnin' with alarm. Come election, they'll be knowin' if they're sheep or if they're goats, but they're sure a sight to look at when it's time to get the votes.

Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Oklahoma's surly Senator "Cotton Elmer" Thomas was so burned up after this column corrected his version of General Bradley's secret testimony on the possibility of war that Thomas has now ordered a Senate subcommittee to investigate.

The subcommittee is supposed to find out how this column got General Bradley's secret testimony. Senator Thomas had reported to the press that the chief of staff was not worried about war with Russia. To keep the record straight, however, this column gave a word-by-word account of Bradley's remarks, which differed considerably from Senator Thomas's version.

Following this, "Cotton Elmer" named three senators to investigate this column—Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming, Willis Robertson of Virginia and Homer Ferguson of Michigan. They are now checking on all the secret transcripts to find which one might have slipped into Drew Pearson's hands. What stumps the investigators, however, is that the column also quoted what General Bradley said off-the-record—which doesn't even appear in the stenographic transcripts.

So far the subcommittee suspects a certain Republican senator of leaking the story to Pearson, but I can assure the subcommittee that its chief suspect wasn't even present during Bradley's testimony.

Meanwhile, this column serves notice that any time responsible official is misquoted on anything the public is entitled to know about, the column will do its best to get the true facts.

MORE TO INVESTIGATE

What Bradley said, summed up briefly, was that Russia won't have the industrial capacity nor the atomic stockpile to start a war for at least two years. However, he warned that Russia is a ballyhoo nation and might get careless whom she pushes around. He also refused to predict what Russia might do after two years.

General Bradley also made other significant observations the public is entitled to know but which this column didn't have space to print in the story now being investigated. So here is some more for the investigators to investigate.

Sen. Burnet Maybank of South Carolina questioned Bradley sharply on whether the $13,000,000 budget was an absolute minimum.

"I certainly would hate to see the figure become any smaller," replied Bradley. Then he declared flatly: "This amount was determined before we learned that Russia had the atomic bomb."

He assured, however, that he was willing to go along with a $13,000,000 budget for the sake of economy.

"In other words," suggested Massachusetts' Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, "as a good citizen you believe we should live within our means."

"Yes, but I would like to qualify that," Bradley hesitated.

"You don't want to qualify the good citizen part," smiled Saltonstall.

Then Bradley explained: "The eventual strength of our country depends upon its industrial capacity. We must not destroy that by spending too much from year to year. So if I came here recommending $30,000,000,000 or $40,000,000,000, for defense, you should start searching for a new chairman of the joint chiefs of staff..."

"It is true that our forces—ground, air and navy—are not sufficient now to fight a major war," Bradley emphasized. "Nor do we expect to be armed sufficient for such a calamity by the end of fiscal year 1951."

"But I feel that we are going to achieve the necessary forces to prevent a disastrous attack from crippling this nation. I also believe that we will be able to win a war if it comes," Bradley said.

He predicted that this country's "mobilization base"—its industrial potential, reserve forces and military education system—would "win a war if it is thrust upon us."

"This is a risk that we take," solemnly added the chief of staff.

UNIFICATION?

Outspoken Adm. Dan Gallery, whose ideas about an all-powerful navy have got him into the military doghouse, was broadening over a fire that damaged his home.

"I don't blame it on the air force," he confided to an air force friend. "I think Secretary of Defense Johnson started it."

WORDS TO WATCH

The frequently heard "kuh-NEK-ti-kut" is a criticism, the result of falsely associating the name Connecticut with the word connect. But there is no connection. Connecticut evolved from the Indian Quonectacut (Quinnilukq-ut, Quinnehtukput) said a mean "long tidal river," also "river of pines." The correct pronunciation is: kuh-NEK-ti-kut.

Connecticut is: kuh-NEK-ti-KUT-ter.

The word valet is French in origin; but it has been in English usage for 400 years or more. In America, we sometimes hear it as "va-LAY" or "VAL-ay." In best usage, however, the first syllable is accented, and the "t" is pronounced, thus: VAL-ay.

In Old French, valet was spelled "var-let," and this form also entered English with the meaning "a young manservant," but, later, as in Shakespeare's usage, "a low fellow, a scoundrel."

The word vagary means, "wild, capricious, or fantastic idea or action," as the vagaries of Texas weather. Many of us pronounce vagary as "VAY-guh-ree," apparently from a false association with the word vague, or perhaps, with the word vagrant, since vagary is from the Latin vagari, "to stroll about." The accent should fall on the second syllable, thus: vuh-GAIR-ree, or: vuh-GAY-ree.

It is a quite common error to pronounce the word tremolo as "trem-yoo-loo." The correct pronunciation is: TREM-uh-loo.

NEA Artist Wins New Honors For Outstanding Editorial Cartoons

By NEA Service

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(NEA)—Dorman H. Smith, chief editorial cartoonist for NEA Service, has been awarded the 16th annual National Headliners' Club medal for "consistently outstanding editorial cartoons."

The news reached him at his home in Cleveland, where he is recovering from an illness that kept him from his drawing board for several weeks. He expects to resume his cartoons soon.

Smith is a veteran of more than 30 years as an artist, and is today one of the nation's most widely published cartoonists. His daily interpretations of domestic and international news appear in The Escanaba Daily Press, and more than 700 other newspapers in the U. S. and Canada.

The award is one of several presented to newspapermen in various fields by the National Headliners' Club of Atlantic City "to honor those behind the news."

Smith's cartoons have previously won him many honors, including the Sigma Delta Chi award for "outstanding editorial cartooning" in 1946.

The cartoonist works in a studio-office at the Cleveland headquarters of NEA, the world's largest newspaper picture and feature organization. He reads newspapers, magazines and the press wires diligently each day, and follows up with research before starting to draw his cartoons.

Serious thinking, yet cleverly humorous, Smith must always keep a jump ahead of the news, for he draws his cartoons a day or two in advance of publication.

The artist enjoys a busman's holiday in his avocation—water color painting. His work has won a number of prizes at Cleveland's annual May Show and he is a member of the Cleveland Society of Artists and San Francisco's famed Bohemian Club. Friends are treated annually to a Christmas card featuring a Smith lithograph of a scene near his home.

Dorman Smith is a self-taught artist and sold his first drawing to the old Life magazine when he was 17. He continued cartooning for humor magazines while working in the steel mills of his native Ohio to earn enough to get married.

In 1921 he joined NEA Service and began producing editorial cartoons for newspapers throughout the country. Smith later worked on newspapers in New York, Chicago and San Francisco, then returned to NEA in 1942 as head of the editorial cartooning staff.

Smith's work has been published in various fields by the National Headliners' Club of Atlantic City "to honor those behind the news."

Smith's cartoons have previously won him many honors, including the Sigma Delta Chi award for "outstanding editorial cartooning" in 1946.

Gas Bill Veto Demand Grows

By ERNEST B. VACCRO
KEY WEST, Fla.—(P)—President Truman's closest confidantes said today he considers his action on the natural gas bill one of the toughest decisions he faces this election year.

Thousands of persons have telephoned or written either to urge its approval or call for a prompt veto.

The measure would prohibit the federal power commission from fixing the price of gas delivered to pipelines by independent producers.

Presidential press secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters only that Mr. Truman will take his time about acting. He acknowledged that there was quite a lot of pressure from both advocates and opponents of the legislation.

Speaker Rayburn of the House, a Texan, and one of the president's closest pals, is an outspoken advocate of the measure.

The president, however, was urged yesterday by mayors of 18 big cities to veto it. The group included mayor William O'Dwyer of New York.

DETROIT—(P)—The formation of a citizens group pledged to seek the ouster of Dearborn's mayor Orville L. Hubbard was announced today.

Reportedly planned in secret the last two months, the movement caps a series of turbulent battles over the rich suburb's municipal affairs.

The outer group, calling itself the Citizens Action Committee of Dearborn, said it had filed articles of incorporation as a non-profit corporation at Lansing.

It claimed 30 civic leaders as directors with Charles A. Wagner, attorney and former Hubbard Backer, as chairman.

The petitions make a variety of charges against the portly mayor. He is accused of "forcefully" taking over a recent public meeting with the aid of his police chief, seeking to prevent a city audit by a citizens group, and appointing "unqualified" persons as department heads to function under his "edict."

Kidnaper Of Girl, 7,
Gets 33 To 40 Years
From Detroit Judge

DETROIT—(P)—Convicted kidnaper William Mabrey, 35, was sentenced today to 33 to 40 years in prison for snatching 7-year-old Karen Kuechenmeister from the living room of her Detroit home last fall.

In a dramatic courtroom scene Recorder's Judge Joseph A. Gillis pronounced the sentence this morning. Mabrey was convicted by a jury of eight women and four men last week.

The child, who was not harmed, testified in court regarding details of the abduction and her 50-minute speeding ride in Mabrey's car while he sought unsuccessfully to elude police in squad cars.

Judge Gillis said the severity of sentence was not influenced in any way by his unprecedented action in asking the jury to recommend punishment. The jury had suggested a sentence of 36 to 40 years but the recommendation was in no manner binding. Judge Gillis said he simply wanted to see what the "unusually intelligent" jury would recommend.

Whittaker Chambers
Won't Be Prosecuted
For Perjury Charges

WASHINGTON—(P)—Any idea the government may have had for prosecuting Whittaker Chambers for perjury has been dropped, it was reported today.

The justice department, which once indicated that such a prosecution was possible, has made no further public statement. However, high officials say the matter is now closed, that no action against Chambers is contemplated.

Chambers' dispute with Alger Hiss over who told the truth before congressional committees and a prewar Soviet spy ring in Washington made legal history during the last two years.

The dispute was climaxed by Hiss' conviction on perjury charges three months ago. He has appealed a five year prison sentence.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil—(P)—Reports reaching this city today said a train loaded with Eastern holidaymakers plunged from a collapsing bridge into the flooded Indian river near Tangua, Rio de Janeiro state, killing 40 persons and injuring 200.

Two sleepers and one coach fell directly into the turbulent river. Three other coaches telescoped and sagged from the bank into the waters of the Kalamazoo river.

Police at first feared one or more persons might have drowned in the accident. But after recovering the car from the river, officers checked the license and found that the owner was Mrs. Pearl Whipple, 38.

After first saying the car had been stolen from her garage, Mrs. Whipple admitted the car had been driven into the river by her companion, 32-year-old Claude Helton, a cab driver, following a quarrel.

Helton and Mrs. Whipple both leaped to safety before the car went over the cliff.

Dust Storms Arouse Fears

Conditions Disturb Federal Experts

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The dust storm bugaboo is once more threatening the country.

Dust blots of alarming proportions, which are occurring this spring, plus a disturbing combination of conditions which have been slowly building up, have uneasy government experts very uneasy about the next few years.

Reluctant to make any flat predictions, Weather Bureau and Department of Agriculture officials nevertheless admit that nature may be setting the stage for dust storms which could match the disastrous ones of the '30s.

The most significant factor is rainfall. In the area west of the Mississippi there hasn't been a bad dry spell since 1939—more than 10 years. Historically, wet and dry cycles alternate every five or six years. By that yardstick, several years of drought are long overdue.

Under ordinary conditions, dust will blow in damaging proportions the first or second year following a serious drought. Local droughts of last year are mostly responsible for this year's ominous dust storms in parts of the west and southwest. It is significant that in the past, severe droughts usually served as warnings for the start of a widespread "dry" cycle.

Aggravating the threatening long-range weather situation are millions of marginal acres, which were brought under cultivation during and after the war by "suitcase farmers" because of tremendous food demand and high food prices. These acres, unable to produce profitably now stand with the top soil loose, completely denuded of even their natural growth of grass and plants.

Recent reports of the Soil Conservation Service reveal, for example, 2,400,000 acres of "plowed-out" land in west Texas and western Oklahoma "without sufficient cover to prevent blowing." The area has already experienced the worst dust storm since before the start of a widespread "dry" cycle.

Admiral Jones, commandant of the Ninth Naval district, Great Lakes, III., was here to dedicate the new million dollar naval reserve training center in Grand Rapids.

He said the new squadron would include a 300-foot destroyer escort and five patrol craft escorts.

Two of the smaller ships already have reached the station and others are en route.

A cruising plan for the squadron, which will provide training for several hundred western Michigan reservists, will be published soon, the admiral said.

Fortunately, in the region of the old Dust Bowl, and extending out from it, the government's soil conservation program has been pushed hard since 1937. As of Jan. 1 of this year, soil conservation districts covered about 250,000 acres.

In spite of this, the Department of Agriculture admits that "the job of safeguarding the Plains conservation-wise actually has only been well begun to date." Nevertheless, the American farmers are infinitely better prepared to defend themselves against the dust storm menace than they were in the '30s.

Most farmers are now familiar with such techniques as contour plowing and the planting of proper cover crops and tree windbreaks. His soil conservation know-how is the one bright spot in the whole dusty picture.

Funny Business

YORKSHIRE, England—(P)—A labor victory in a by-election in this steel city has increased the British Labor government's overall majority in the House of Commons to a still precarious four seats.

Voters in the Neepsend division yesterday gave labor candidate Sir Frank Soskice, Britain's solicitor general, 22,080 votes. His major opponent, James P. Hunt, running a combined Conservative-Liberal ticket got only 8,365 and Communist candidate E. L. Moore got 729.

The polling was small—only 63 per cent of the voters—compared with 84 per cent in the national elections Feb. 23 in the same district.

The election in this labor stronghold was engineered by the government to get Soskice a seat in parliament. He was defeated in his own constituency in the general elections.

Defense Appointees Approved By Senate

WASHINGTON—(P)—Nominations of Frank Pace, Jr., and W. Stuart Symington for key defense posts were approved unanimously by the Senate Armed Services committee today.

The committee recommended that the Senate confirm Pace to be Secretary of the Army and Symington to be chairman of the National Security Resources Board. Both were named by President Truman last week.

Briefly Told

See Robin—The weather has caused Mrs. Bill Charlebois of 1307 South 10th avenue to despair the arrival of spring, but this morning she spotted a ray of hope. A large robin, the first she has seen this year, was playing in the Charlebois' backyard. Mrs. Charlebois was gazing out her kitchen window, watching children play in the sunshine, when she spotted the bird. "It's so late already, I really thought there wasn't going to be any spring," she laughed.

Mrs. C. L. Riegel, 1023 Ninth avenue south, also saw a robin this morning, a large, fat one. It may not have been the same one Mrs. Charlebois observed; however, both were quite happy to see the spring harbinger.

Unemployment Pay
Extension Proposed
In Truman Message

DETROIT, April 6—(P)—President Truman sent to Congress today a message recommending extension of unemployment compensation payments to an additional 6,000,000 persons and raising benefits by approximately 20 percent.

Mr. Truman sent the message to Washington by a courier in the hope it can be transmitted to the House before it recesses this afternoon.

The message calls for legislation spelling out recommendations he made in his "State of the Union" budget and economic messages to Congress in January.

Sees Flying Saucer

If you're keeping a "flying saucer" scrapbook, here's another clipping.

"About six or seven" yard men working at Harnischfeger's plant reported this morning that they had seen a small, white disk shoot across the sky toward Cornell.

The men, who asked to remain anonymous, said it was traveling at "considerable speed" and that smoke was emitting from it.

"Geeeee... Lookit da kowwww-ger!"

Cougar or "kow-ger" (It was really a leopard), it was part of opening night for the "Greatest Show on Earth" at the traditional Manhattan premiere in Madison Square Garden.

Statistics May Be Meaningless

Ruark Awaits Call Of Census Taker

By ROBERT C. RUARK

NEW YORK—White-lipped and trembling, I sit here awaiting the census—taker's popcail, reduced to panic as I review the possibility of a nosy-parker in thug's clothing, who perchance may present forged credentials and mislead me of the Hope Diamond and the other trinkets I keep in my bureau, but mostly I worry about what I will tell him or her.

I understand you can go to jail or pay a fine for passing off any untruths to the data-collectors and you come to a fateful choice. Everyone in the block knows that I pulled off the Brink robbery, singlehanded, so what do I tell the guy when he asks me where I collected my second million dollars?

As I understand it every fifth guy gets subjected to a loyalty test for some future project of the government, and I wonder, dear diary, if I should tell the man about the carload of rifles I intend to sell to Korea, as a heavy markup? I mean, how far do you go? Who can say the super-spies won't have my true confessions for their files?

A Pile Of Junk

What I mean, mostly, is who can use all this collyer-mansion debris of information once it's collected, if it ever gets collected? Will Leon Keyserling, the economist, employ my heart's secrets to tell me how to live richest and ripest? Or will this go to Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan for passage to Johnny Maragon? Am I sure that my soul's treasured horde will not fall into Communist hands, or be transmitted to the ballet section of the state department?

As a matter of fact, what makes me guilty of a misdemeanor if I stay buttoned-up on all pertinent facets of my financial life, or the life of my relatives? How come I got to tell all if the man asks me? All you get in the end is a statistic, and a statistic in the end is usually as painful as a kick.

I am a statistic-fighter from away back, for a statistic is a thing that all promoters use to whet their individual ax. The statistic is the tool of the politician, the fulcrum of the planner, and finally, the lame excuse of the fatuous failure. We had an awful lot of practical bums in the business of running this vast land during the last 20 years or so, and it seems to me most of their livelihood was erected on the peak of a mountain of wishful statistics.

Make Arrogance

Statistics built and helped to wreck, the New Deal, and statistics are the basic diet of the Truman administration, and statistics are back of the fight between the services and the stupidities in agriculture and the absurdities of the housing program and all I know about statistics is that they or it is a dangerous toy for the inept planner to play with. We have been in the statistic-manipulation business for a long time, and I can't see much has come of it except isolated arrogance from a few heavy thinkers who want to run everybody's existence according to their private plan.

Statistics take a long time to compile and co-relate and simmer down and serve up in a palatable form, and by the time they're ready for the table the chances are they ain't any good any more on account of having been replaced by some new facts and figures. We saw the true value of the statistical survey in the late presidential election, when all hands were dead wrong . . . Where the whole scene changed in a matter of days or weeks, at worst.

Sphagnum (peat) moss is anti-septic and objects like logs, cloth, and even bodies, buried in it are prevented from rotting and sometimes are preserved for centuries.

tistics, so's we could save a buck in the administration of national affairs, and nothing has come of that, even though the old gentleman laid it on the line in tight figures. What good are statistics if you ignore painful truths and work only with what you like?

A harried housewife from Bronxville has just told me that the census-taker made a big point of how much money her seven-year-old daughter earned last year and then left his card in case she wanted any odd jobs done around the yard. That is my opinion of statistics, in a very small, tight, nutshell.

State Revenue Held Steady For March

LANSING—(P)—Collections of state sales, use and cigarette taxes held steady in March, the revenue department has announced.

March collections of sales tax on February business totaled $14,892,854 for an increase of $280,000 over February collections. Collections in March, 1949, totaled $13,054,000.

The use tax collected this month totaled $373,334. This was up $18,000 over February and down $36,000 over a year ago.

The cigarette tax dropped $32,000 over February collections to $1,598,919. The total compared with $1,661,000 a year ago.

Unwed Mother Held In Lansing For Sale Of Her Baby At $550

LANSING—(P)—Police today

arrested an unwed mother from Bay City on a charge of "selling" her six-weeks-old son for $550.

She was identified as Betty Lou Loll, 23.

The girl was arrested by a policewoman when she emerged from an adoption hearing in the office of Probate Judge John J. McClellan.

Police said they had learned that Miss Loll had given birth to the child in a Lansing hospital Feb. 10 and turned it over March 15 to a couple living near East Lansing.

The adoption hearing made the adoption legal, but police said turning over the child before the hearing and accepting a sum not approved by the probate court were both violations of the state adoption statutes. Those were the bases on which the warrant was issued.

In cities over 1,000,000 population, Los Angeles led with a ratio of 2.4 deaths to each 10,000 registered vehicles, while Detroit was second with 3.7 and Chicago third with 4.7.

Republican Leader Martin Drafts New Prosperity Program

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON — (AP)—A five-point "prosperity program" was offered Wednesday by House Republican Leader Martin, of Massachusetts. He called it a non-partisan proposal.

Martin said it would "go far toward reversing the tide" he declared is carrying the nation in the direction of Socialism and unemployment.

In his speech, prepared for delivery during debate on an omnibus appropriation bill, Martin called upon Congress and the President to:

1. Remove wartime excise taxes.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

WALTER HUSTON, born April 6, 1884 in Toronto as Walter Houghston, son of a contractor.

Stage and screen actor, he has made many roles. From vaudeville he was brought to the stage by Brock Pemberton. He entered films in 1929.

2. Create tax incentive for small business.

3. Balance the budget and start paying on the national debt.

4. Administer the tariff program more carefully.

5. Remove "the threat of socialism that hangs over the country."

Repeal of excise taxes, along with "severe taxes with which the small businessman is shamed," Martin said, would give business such "a hefty stimulus that there would soon be an increase in tax revenue that would more than offset the initial reduction."

He called a balanced budget "the surest guarantee of our economic strength" and said the best way to accomplish this balance between income and spending is "to cut spending."

Unwise administration of the tariff and reciprocal trade programs, Martin said, already has caused widespread employment in some areas because of an influx of cheap goods from abroad.

He said that "as long as the United States is pushed down a course that parallels Britain, there will be a damper on the enthusiasm and daring that are the cornerstones of lasting prosperity."

Finletter Appointment Assured Senate O. K.

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Senator Tydings (D-Md.) has forecast early and favorable Senate action on President Truman's appointment of Thomas K. Finletter as secretary of war.

Finletter's nomination was signed Tuesday at the winter White House in Key West, Fla.

"It is one of the best appointments the president has made," Tydings, chairman of the Senate Armed service committee, told a reporter. "Mr. Finletter is well qualified."

It may be possible to act on the nomination at a session of the Armed Services committee session Thursday, Tydings said, "although we usually let these nominations wait for a week."

Senator Gurney (R-SD), from

from St. Petersburg, Fla., where he and Mrs. Finlan spent the winter, Mrs. Finlan will remain south until about May 1.

Shirley Sisco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sisco, and Billy spent Monday in Gladstone at the home of Mrs. Sisco's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Raab motored to Marquette Monday where Mr. Raab received treatment for a hand injury received several weeks in an accident while he was loading logs on his truck.

Herb Finlan returned Sunday

from St. Petersburg, Fla., where he and Mrs. Finlan spent the winter, Mrs. Finlan will remain south until about May 1.

Shirley Sisco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sisco, is a pneumonia patient at St. Francis hospital, Escanaba.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bucholtz and daughter, Ronda Lynn, spent the weekend in Chicago where they were guests at the silver wedding observance of Mrs. Bucholtz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Tatman.

Erick Peterson is a medical patient at Brasier Clinic at Munising.

McMillan

Community Party

MCMILLAN.—Mr. and Mrs. Leroy McPherson entertained the members of the Community card club Friday evening. The party was held in the township hall with 24 in attendance. Five hundred and cabbage were played with high score in five-hundred being awarded to Mrs. John Armstrong and in cribbage to Martin Harju. At the close of cards lunch was served. Those attending included Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Painter, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Mainville, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mainville, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Harju, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards, Emil Fritchie, Floyd Tucker, Mrs. William Poppe, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. Kermitt Tressler, Mrs. Perry Mark, Mrs. Harvey Mainville, Mrs. Harry Skinner, Mrs. Helma Anderson, Mrs. Wilmer Harkness, Mrs. Frank Kirby and Mrs. Frank Chaney.

As chairman of a special aviation commission that made a detailed survey of postwar aviation, Finletter, a New York attorney, is widely known among members of Congress. He is a strong advocate of a 70-group Air Force, in contrast to the present 48-group.

As secretary for air he would succeed W. Stuart Symington who was nominated by the president last week to be chairman of the National Security Resources Board.

At the same time Frank C. Pace, Jr., director of the budget, was appointed secretary of the army to succeed Gordon Gray, who will be a special presidential assistant for a few months prior to becoming president of the University of North Carolina.

The Symington and Pace nominations also may clear the Senate Armed Services committee session Thursday. A partial check of members indicated no opposition.

Senate approval of both Finletter and Symington would place two champions of air power in key defense posts.

Greek philosophers taught that the world is round, although this knowledge was later lost to mankind for centuries.

honor of her sister Karen, the occasion being Karen's 7th birthday anniversary. Various games were played after which a dainty lunch was served. Karen was the recipient of many nice gifts from her friends as a memento of the anniversary. Guests at her party were Delores ad Dianne Koontz, Anne Barney, Linda Weekley, Mary Lee Hanger, Beverly Hanger, Patsy and Jane Kirby.

Dance is Success

The dance sponsored by students of the local school and given in the school auditorium Saturday evening proved a success socially and financially. The students cleared $136.00. Proceeds of the dance will be used for financing athletic activities.

111 Cedar StreetCounty Board To Meet April 17Reorganization Is On Agenda

The Schoolcraft County Board of Supervisors will meet in regular session at the court house on the morning of Monday, April 17 at ten o'clock.

The session will, in many ways be the most important of the entire year, because reorganization of that body will take place at that time with election of a county chairman and subsequent appointment of committees being the first order of business.

That there may be some drastic changes in this setup is indicated by the fact that there will be a change in the board's personnel of at least two members. Dr. James Fyvie and A. W. Heitman, recently elected councilmen for the city of Manistique, are certain to be named new members of the board, replacing William Berger and William Sellman, whom they defeated. John Nessman, another member of the board, is deemed likely to be replaced. Appointment as assessor for the city made him eligible for a position on the board. His term in that capacity, expires April 15 and appointment of a successor for him will be an order of business of the new city council at its meeting Monday evening.

Equalization of assessment rolls of the City of Manistique and the various townships in the county will also be on the agenda at the supervisors' meeting.

The auditing committee, which passes on merits of bills for allowance, and general matters of that nature, will meet Saturday afternoon April 15 at 2 o'clock.

Election Board
Confirms Results
Of Monday's Vote

Confirmation of the election of two members of the city council and a justice of the peace in Monday's municipal election was made at a meeting of the board of electors Thursday afternoon.

The formality consisted of a review of the election tabulations made by election officials.

On this board were William J. Shinar, C. L. Smith and Joe Vasau.

Declared duly elected were Dr. James H. Fyvie and A. W. Heitman, councilmen; and Edward Gray, justice of the peace.

Drunk Driver
Fined In Justice
Court Wednesday

Norman St. John was fined $50 and $8 costs following his plea of guilty in justice court Wednesday morning to a charge of driving a car while under the influence of liquor.

St. John was arrested Tuesday evening by state police while driving on Highway U. S. 2 within the city limits. In addition to the fine, his driver's license was revoked for a period of six months.

APPRECIATION

We wish to express our thanks to the voters of Manistique for the splendid vote of confidence at Monday's election.

As members of the City Council we pledge our time and best efforts to your service.

Thank you again.

to right: Bill Corson, first in original oratory; Joan Sheahan, first in dramatic declamation; Mary Ann Mincoff, first in oratorical declamation; Coach Marvin Frederickson and Dan Van Eyck first in extemporaneous speaking.

County Community
Improvement Group
Will Meet Monday

The first regular meeting of the Schoolcraft county community improvement council will be held at Paul Bunyan's Cook Camp, Monday evening, April 10, at 6:30 p. m., according to temporary chairman, Clayton D. Reid.

This is the organization resulting from the "Our Community Tomorrow Institute" held here February 23 and March 1.

Every citizen of Manistique and Schoolcraft county who is interested in civic improvement is urged to attend this meeting. Business to be taken up at this meeting will be election of officers, adoption of a constitution and by-laws, and consideration of a community calendar.

The meeting will start with an informal buffet luncheon.

Maudy Thursday
Rites At Church
Of The Redeemer

Tonight in the Church of the Redeemer the traditional Maundy Thursday Communion Service will be held. Starting at 7:30 p. m. the service will be in candlelight. Special music by the church quartet will add to the highly inspirational character of the entire service whose theme centers around the memory of the night before the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

Father forgive them for they know not what they do—Rev. S. B. Dickson

Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with Me in Paradise—Rev. John Safran

Woman, behold thy Son. Behold thy mother!—Rev. Paul Sebel

My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?—Rev. Carl Olson, Minneapolis

I thirst—Rev. William Schobert

It is finished—Rev. Peter Porta

Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit—Rev. Harold Martinson

This service has been traditionally observed and sponsored by the Manistique Ministerial Association.

Plans were outlined to cut Britain's estimated dollar drain in half in 1950 by a drastic 26 per cent slash in imports from hard currency countries — principally America.

The government at the same time called on Britons to work harder and more efficiently for the same wages. Exports to earn dollars must be pressed harder than ever.

An economic survey for the coming year, issued by the government today as a white paper, declared the continuance of Marshall aid "though on a diminishing scale" was the basic assumption on which the hope of progress is based.

Good Friday

Stores To Close
From Noon To 3:00

Following a custom, which has become a tradition, Manistique places of business will close Friday noon and remain closed until three o'clock in the afternoon.

At St. Francis de Sales Catholic church the solemn rites commemorating the Savior's crucifixion and death will be enacted in the manner prescribed through the years.

There will be special services at Zion Lutheran church which will be in the nature of a memorial ceremony. The pastor will deal with the seven last words of Christ.

Good Friday Union service will be held from 1 to 3:00 p. m. Friday afternoon in the Church of the Redeemer. The service will be in 7 distinct divisions following the theme of "The Seven Last Words."

In each division there will be special music or congregational singing. The following is the order of service:

Father forgive them for they know not what they do—Rev. S. B. Dickson

Verily I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with Me in Paradise—Rev. John Safran

Woman, behold thy Son. Behold thy mother!—Rev. Paul Sebel

Spilling The Dope

By Charlie Larson

Good news! Earl Taylor is back in harness again. In seven years, have you forgotten Earl? For years, he was "Mr. Bowling" of Escanaba. Few persons have spilled as many pins in their day as Taylor.

The boys at the Elks club got him on the alley again the other day. He didn't have his own shoes or his own ball.

He was a bit rusty after a seven-year layoff. His first two games weren't anything particular to write home about.

But he wound up his third fling with a 197. His average for the three games was 164. Something for you to shoot at.

Let's clean off the desk and see what we find . . . Bert Pozza of Iron Mountain won a freshman basketball letter at Marquette university in Milwaukee . . . Gene Ronzani, the Iron Mountain "man mountain," says he'll have "power on the middle" on the Packers next fall . . . sez Gene, "All grid powerhouses are tough at center, quarterback and fullback" . . . just like in baseball, catcher, pitcher, second and shortstop, and centerfield . . . Stan Heath, Packer passer, is a deputy sheriff down in the Nevada country . . . Leonard Brumm of Marquette was the only native Michigan boy to win a letter on the Wolverine hockey team this year . . . all the rest were from Canada, Minnesota or Massachusetts.

More housecleaning . . . Robert Freimuth of Ontonagon is seeking a spot on the Western Michigan college varsity tennis team . . . Pat Smithwick is a top middle distance runner at St. Norbert college . . . wonder if he is related to "Moose" . . . and whatever happened to "Moose" . . . the University of Michigan athletic department paid $232,991.98 in taxes to Uncle Sam last year . . . getting back to the Packers, they have signed Frank Kuzma, blocking back, and "Buster" Mealey of Minnesota's Golden Gophers . . . Walt Bieftila, former Ishpeming ski jumper, has been asked to manage Iron Mountain's NWM baseball league entry this year . . . from Jim Idema, a swell guy and fine newspaperman in Grand Rapids, we learn that Walt was a top-notch flier in the war . . . they served in the navy together.

Sports Roundup

Kaintuck Derby One Month Away

Oil Capitol, Hill Prince Favored

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
AUGUSTA, Ga.—(P)—Norman Von Nida, little beret-wearing Australian who is paired with Ben Hogan, for today's opening round of the Masters golf tournament, must have tried out 50 clubs since he has been here . . . Von Nida likes the American-made implements better than those he can get at home and is trying to find a set that suits him exactly to take along to the British open . . . Sammy Snead complained he "never was so nervous" after completing his final practice round, which could be taken as a good or bad sign.

What's The Youth?

Ace Parker, Duke U. backfield coach, encountered Center Jim Gibson, injured in spring football practice, in the university tonsorial parlor the other day . . . "How's the shoulder, Gib?" Parker queried politely . . . "Not so good, coach," replied the 24-year-old athlete. "Guess I'm getting too old for this game" . . . With a perfectly deadpan expression, Ace matched Gibson's sigh and said: "That's the way I felt once—when I was 35."

In One Ear

The U. of Georgia, which has been panned for playing a "bowl" football schedule, is boasting about one now . . . Nine of the 11 teams the Bulldogs play next fall have played in one or more bowl games in the past . . . Alabama is getting hot up about Bobby Marlow, a 195-pound back who showed in spring practice . . . Red Drew can't decide whether to use Bobby at fullback or right half on offense or as defensive line-backing specialist.

CUBS WIN, 22-12
(By The Associated Press)

The last few seasons the Chicago Cubs come out on the wrong end of 22-12 scores. But not yesterday. They unloaded five homers, two by Andy Pafko, in walked the St. Louis Browns.

"Killer" Kemphorn of Canton, O., football backfield star; Al Wistert of Chicago, star lineman on the football squad; and Charles Murray of Birmingham, captain-elect of the basketball team. (AP Photo)

Cobb Or Ruth? Ask Shotton!

Never Will Be Another Like Georgia Peach, Says Dodger Manager

DALLAS, Texas—(P)—Baseball people are still taking sides in the recent Associated Press poll to decide the greatest player of the past 50 years.

Latest to disagree with the nation's sportswriters who gave the honor to Babe Ruth is Manager Burt Shotton of the Brooklyn Dodgers. He names Ty Cobb as the greatest.

"Why don't they ask those who saw both Ruth and Cobb in their prime who was the better player?" Shotton wanted to know. "Why don't they ask me?"

"I played against both," he went on, and to me, none ever came close to Cobb. Anybody who played against him would tell you there never was a player like Cobb."

From 1909 to 1918 while Bert was outfielder for the St. Louis Browns, Cobb won the batting title every year except one, in 1916, when Tris Speaker beat him out.

"I bet Cobb could beat you more times than Ruth, and in more ways," he said. "There wasn't a thing he couldn't do. He hit more than .400 three times. He once stole 98 bases in a season. He collected more than 4,000 hits and scored more than 3,000 runs."

"Sure, Ruth was a great home run hitter," Shotton conceded, "but they had to change the game for him. They made over the ball. They even built a ball park to suit him."

Shotton said he always got along well with Cobb, despite Ty's fiery reputation.

"I just never spoke to him,"

Burt grinned. "Cobb was not liked by anybody. But he was respected everywhere. He was the roughest, toughest player I ever saw. He was not dirty though. I never saw him spike a player deliberately. But if you ever got in the way of his flying spikes, brother, you were a dead turkey."

"Cobb was a terror on the bases. I'll never forget the day Bill Bailey, one of our lefthanders, tried to pick him off first. Before any of us realized it, Cobb had scored."

"Another time, I had the ball in my hand behind third, backing up a throw there. I positively had to trap him half way to the plate. I said to myself, 'Ty, you old so-and-so, I got you this time.' I threw home in plenty of time to get him. Then I saw Cobb slide. Nobody slides today the way he did. The ball went in one direction, the catcher's glove in another, and our catcher, Paul Krichell, in still another. Of course, Cobb was safe."

"After the game, Cobb came into our clubhouse to fight Krichell for blocking the plate."

"Cobb wasn't the fastest runner, but he led the league in stolen bases nearly every year. He wasn't the most powerful hitter, but he led the league in home runs once and in total bases many times. He wasn't the greatest outfielder, but he had more assists than anybody else. And tell me who was nervier, who took more chances, and who took better advantage of an enemy slip?"

"There was nobody like Cobb. And there will never be anybody like him."

Wings Bring Up Aid

By the Associated Press

The Detroit Red Wings and Montreal Canadiens, both resurgent after stumbling starts called on fresh rookie talent to keep their Stanley cup hopes alive tonight in semifinal games.

The conferences are believed to be the Pacific coast, Big Ten, Six, Big Seven, Border, Missouri Valley, Southwest, Southeastern and Ivy league.

The Canadiens, who dropped the first three games before finally winning one, will have five rookies ready for their back-to-the-wall clash with the New York Rangers at Montreal.

The Canadiens, who dropped the first three games before finally winning one, will have five rookies ready for their back-to-the-wall clash with the New York Rangers at Montreal.

The three Detroit rookies—defensemen Marcel Pronovost, left wing John Wilson and center Larry Wilson—may see action against the Maple Leafs, who brushed the Red Wings off in four straight to win the Stanley cup a year ago.

Detroit is not at full strength. Right wing Gordie Howe is still in the hospital with a head injury received in the opening game of the series. Jim Peters, another regular, has a bum leg.

Montreal is sprinkling its line-up with eager rookies in hopes of pulling the Ranger series out of the fire.

Tom Johnson, a defenseman, has been called up from the Buffalo Bisons of the American league.

Gerry McNeil, rookie goalie who took over the tending job Tuesday night, will be back at the nets. He is replacing Bill Durnan at the veteran's request.

Other comparative newcomers on the Montreal roster are Paul Meger, a winger from Buffalo, and Bobby Frampton and Bert Hirschfeld, forwards recalled from Cincinnati.

The fight now is scheduled for May 3. Michigan Commissioner Floyd Stevens said the suspension would not be lifted until Williams actually is in the ring.

"I'm shocked that the commission suspended Williams instead of putting him on the sick and unavailable list," Palermo declared. "In my opinion that would have been the fair thing to do after he (Stevens) spoke to Williams in the hospital. Ike has proved himself a fighting champion."

Palermo said Felton was a "very dangerous foe" and that Williams was entitled to a "tune-up bout" before meeting the Detroit welterweight.

Evers Homers Twice As Tigers Win, 11-9

ATLANTA, Ga.—(P)—Sweet-

Rogovin were the bright spots in that Tiger victory, but there were a few dark clouds too.

The latter included some unimpressive relief pitching by Hal White and Mary Grissom who took over after Saul Rogovin had built up a 6-1 lead.

The lean outfielder had a field day yesterday. He slammed out two homers and two doubles while the Tigers staggered to an 11-9 win over the Macon Peaches of the South Atlantic league.

GERMFASK—Mrs. Harold Peters has returned from Wolverine where she visited relatives during the weekend.

Mrs. C. S. Johnson left Friday for Detroit where she will attend capping ceremonies at Harper hospital of which her daughter, Marilyn is a student nurse. She also will spend several days at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Randy Johnson.

Mrs. William Caffey, Mrs. Audie McDougall, Mrs. Herbert Musselman, Mrs. Fred England and Mrs. John Lustila attended the Eastern Star meeting in Manistique.

Delegates of three extension groups, Merry Home Makers, East End Craft and South Germfask attended a meeting at the Manistique township hall at which program planning for national home demonstration week, U. P. State Fair, spring achievement and lessons for 1951 was discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell and children, Sandra and Frances, of Newberry were visitors at the William Brain home enroute to Iron River where they were called by the serious illness of Mr. Campbell's parents. The children remained here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Brain.

Floyd Menere has returned from Sault Ste. Marie where he spent the past two months with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Menere.

Cancer Drive

The annual cancer drive in Germfask opened Saturday. Those wishing to contribute are asked to contact Mrs. Katherine Shay who is solicitor for the township.
